Title: 11th Street Pocket Prairie

Presenter: Liz Rebstad with Houston Park Board

Summary: In spring 2023, the Houston Parks Board's Conservation Program will be starting a prairie restoration along the White Oak Bayou Greenways trail at W. 11th St. and TC Jester Blvd. We will be diving deeper into the restoration process, the wildlife benefits, and the many volunteer opportunities..

Biography: As a conservationist, Liz Rebstad has a passion for restoring and protecting the native Houston landscape. For the past 5 years, she has worked on various wetland and prairie restoration projects with different agencies and non-profit organizations along the gulf coast. Liz is responsible for monitoring and identifying habitat restoration needs within the Bayou Greenways as a Conservation Technician. She loves to engage with the community, learn new skills, and teach others about the environment.
